Community Scholarship Application Information

INTRODUCTION OF TACL

TACL-LA is a 501(c)3 non-profit with the mission of improving the quality of life of Taiwanese-Americans and promoting Taiwanese-American participation in the American democratic system. TACL-LA's work is largely devoted to building an understanding of the Taiwanese-American culture to the broader mainstream culture. Its programs serve to benefit all ages, but have emphasized on leadership and identity development programs for youth, encouraging involvement and development in areas that Asian-Americans lack adequate representation. Signature programs include the Political Internship (SIP), Journalism Internship (JIP), Entertainment Internship (EI), High School Scholarship, Leadership Identity Development (LID) and Leading Youth Forward (LYF) Camps, and our affiliates for young professionals: Taiwanese American Professionals (TAP) and for high school students: Junior Taiwanese-American Students Association (JTASA).

TACL COMMUNITY SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Since 2002, TACL-LA has awarded 10 to 15 scholarships each in the form of $500 to college-bound seniors and juniors who have demonstrated leadership, student involvement, community service, and academic success. Over the last sixteen years, TACL-LA has distributed over two hundreds scholarships to college-bound seniors and juniors across more than ten schools in the County of Los Angeles. The recipients were from high schools of the Greater Los Angeles area. The scholarship is open to all seniors and juniors at your high school regardless of sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, citizenship, age, disability, medical condition, or sexual orientation. With this scholarship program, we hope to inspire, cultivate an appreciation for cultural diversity, and support the scholarship recipients in their endeavors toward his/her achievements, academically and professionally, in his/her future.

ELIGIBILITY:

1. Applicant is to be a college-bound high school senior and juniors living in Los Angeles County. The high school senior and juniors are eligible regardless of sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, citizenship, age, disability, medical condition, or sexual orientation.
2. Applicant has demonstrated leadership, student involvement, community service, and academic success by promoting understanding and respect among different cultural and ethnic groups through their thoughts and actions.

January 20, 2018

Dear Counselors,

The Taiwanese-American Citizens League, Los Angeles Chapter (TACL-LA), is pleased to announce its 2018 Taiwanese-American Community Scholarship Program. We appreciate your school's participation last year, and we would invite your college-bound seniors and juniors to apply. Each award will be in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500) along with a certificate. We will offer a total of at least 10 awards for Los Angeles County students. The scholarship is open to all seniors and juniors at your high school regardless of sex, race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, age, disability, medical condition, or sexual orientation. We hope that the scholarship will inspire the award recipients toward greater achievements, academically and professionally, in his/her future.

Applicants must be college-bound seniors in the graduating classes of 2018 and juniors. We would like the recipients to be well-rounded students who have demonstrated leadership skills, extracurricular activity involvement, community service, and academic achievement.

In addition, we would greatly appreciate your help in nominating a senior and a junior in any of the following categories:

- A senior and a junior in financial need
- A senior and a junior from a family of a veteran or a senior participating in you ROTC Program

Please notify me with the names of your nominees. Your nominees must apply for the scholarship and participate in TACL-LA approved cultural events.

The application deadline is March 30, 2018. We will announce the award winners by June 10, 2018.

Attached are scholarship flyers and application forms. The entire application package can be downloaded from www.tacl.org or www.pacific-times.com Please feel free to contact me should you have any question or need more information.

Sincerely Yours,

Lynn Wen
